MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: Letter from General Lansdale

1. Attached hereto is a copy of a personal memorandum to me from General Lansdale which I am sure you will enjoy reading. You are aware, I know, how pleasing it is for me to receive such testimonials about the work and performance of Agency personnel, and I want to add my own "well done" to what General Lansdale has written.
2. I am sending the original of the memorandum to the Director of Personnel for inclusion in your Official Personnel File.

MEMORANDUM FOR: [redacted]

1. As agreed in our telephone conversation this morning, I see no particular action to be taken in connection with General Lansdale's proposal in the penultimate paragraph of his memorandum to the Director. We can keep this in mind and avail ourselves of Frank's assistance when occasion arises.
2. Attached hereto is a note which the Director might want to send to him.
